

6425A: Configuring Windows Server 2008 Active Directory Domain Services

Course Outline

Module 1: Installing Active Directory Domain Services

This module explains how to install and configure Active Directory Domain Services and install and configure a read-only domain controller.

Module 2: Configuring DNS for AD DS

This module explains how to configure Domain Name Services (DNS) for Active Directory Domain Services.

Module 3: Configuring Active Directory Objects and Trusts

This module explains how to configure Active Directory Objects and Trusts.

Module 4: Configuring Active Directory Sites and Replication

This module explains how to configure Active Directory Objects and Trusts.

Module 5: Creating and Configuring Group Policies

This module explains how to create and configure group policies.

Module 6: Configuring User Environments Using Group Policies

This module explains how to configure user environments using Group Policies.

Module 7: Implementing Security Using Group Policies

This module explains how to implement security using Group Policies.

Module 8: Implementing an Active Directory Domain Services Monitoring Plan

This module explains how to implement Active Directory Domain Services monitoring plan.

Module 9: Implementing an Active Directory Domain Services Maintenance Plan

This module explains how to implement an Active Directory Domain Services maintenance plan.

Module 10: Troubleshooting

This module explains how to troubleshoot Active Directory Domain Services, Domain Name Service, and Active Directory replication.

Module 11: Troubleshooting Group Policy Issues

This module explains how to troubleshoot the application of group policy objects.

Module 12: Implementing an Active Directory Domain Services Infrastructure

This module explains how to implement an Active Directory Domain Services Infrastructure.